Leah Darrow

speaking on

The Faithful Fashionista:
Where Faith and Fashion Meet

Before her debut on the hit reality TV show, America's Next Top Model, and the subsequent years as a professional model, Leah earned a bachelor degree in Psychology from the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Leah shares her testimony internationally on the importance of balancing modesty and purity with fashion and beauty. In her talk at our Winter Tea, Leah will focus on the lifestyle choices she made, and how her fashion style was a reflection of it. What we wear is a portrayal to the world of our own personal image of who we are. So... who are we? While there are many different answers to this question, each intrinsic to the person, we all have one common denominator. We are children of God. Our clothes tell a lot about us. It can tell others what we want, our talents, our needs, our personalities, our dispositions and our destinations. It can build as much as it can destroy our image. Clothing is silent but a very powerful communicator.
